Other highlights

Garden Rhapsody – Tales of the Moon

The free nightly music and light show at Supertree Grove takes on a mid-autumn theme. In Tales of the Moon, experience a visually-spectacular music extravaganza that pays homage to the moon.

Get Crafty! – Nature’s Mid-Autumn Greeting Card Activity by Whitetree

Some herbs have beautiful natural colour pigments that are extracted to make dyes. Such dyes from used or dried herbs are environmentally friendly and odourless alternatives that can be used for watercolour paintings. In this activity, you will get to colour a mid-autumn inspired greeting card using pigments from dried herbs that are kind to nature.

Terms and conditions

- Fees apply.
- Onsite registration only. Slots are available on a first-come-first-served basis.
- Admission into Flower Dome is required and must be purchased separately.
- For more information about this workshop, visit: www.gardensbythebay.com.sg/midautumn

Kids Go Free to Flower Dome

In celebration of Mid-Autumn Festival and to give families more opportunities to bond, Gardens by the Bay is offering free entry to Flower Dome to children aged 12 and below, for the duration of the festival from Aug 27 to Sep 11.

Terms and conditions

- Promotion is valid for visits from 27 Aug to 11 Sep 2022, between 6pm and 9pm.
- Promotion is valid for children aged 12 and below (local residents only).
- Proof of identity is required upon admission.
- Promotion is valid for Flower Dome only.

Korean Craft Making Workshops

Experience and learn more about Korean culture through a series of craft making workshops. Try your hand at making a cheongsachorong, a traditional Korean lantern where the top half is red and the bottom half is blue, that is commonly used by royalty in the court of the late Joseon dynasty as well as at weddings; craft a hanging decor using hanji (Korean traditional paper); and design a dancheong coaster with a traditional Korean pattern!

These workshops are presented by the Korea Tourism Organization Singapore and the Embassy of the Republic of Korea in Singapore, as part of Gardens by the Bay's Mid-Autumn Festival 2022.

Terms and conditions

- Limited seats are available based on a first-come-first-served basis. Registration opens from 6pm onwards at the craft booth located at Supertree Grove, near The Colours of Daily Life lantern display.

Lantern Giveaway

On the launch day of Gardens by the Bay's Mid-Autumn Festival (Aug 27) and the actual day of the festival (Sep 10), collect a specially-designed lantern for free at Supertree Grove. The giveaway is in celebration of Gardens by the Bay's tenth anniversary.

Terms and conditions

- Collection point is opposite Supertree Grove Lawn.
- Limited to one lantern per person.
- Limited lanterns available based on a first-come-first served basis.

Marketplace

Come check out the marketplace where delicious street food and attractive Mid-Autumn merchandise await you! *Charges apply.

Photo Booth – Kingdom Friends Hide & Seek

At Supertree Grove, snap a photo with the Kingdom Friends, the Korean Tourism Organization's mascot figurines – Hojong, Tiger King of Joseon Dynasty; Mugo, his royal bodyguard; and wizard magpie Kawoo. Take part in the Kingdom Friends Hide & Seek SNS Event and stand a chance to bring home Kingdom Friends plush toys by posting your photos with the characters on social media.

This activity is presented by the Korea Tourism Organization Singapore and the Embassy of the Republic of Korea in Singapore, as part of Gardens by the Bay's Mid-Autumn Festival 2022.

Terms and conditions

- Limited plush toys available based on a first-come-first-served basis.
